Hole #1 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
320	320	292	292	292	292

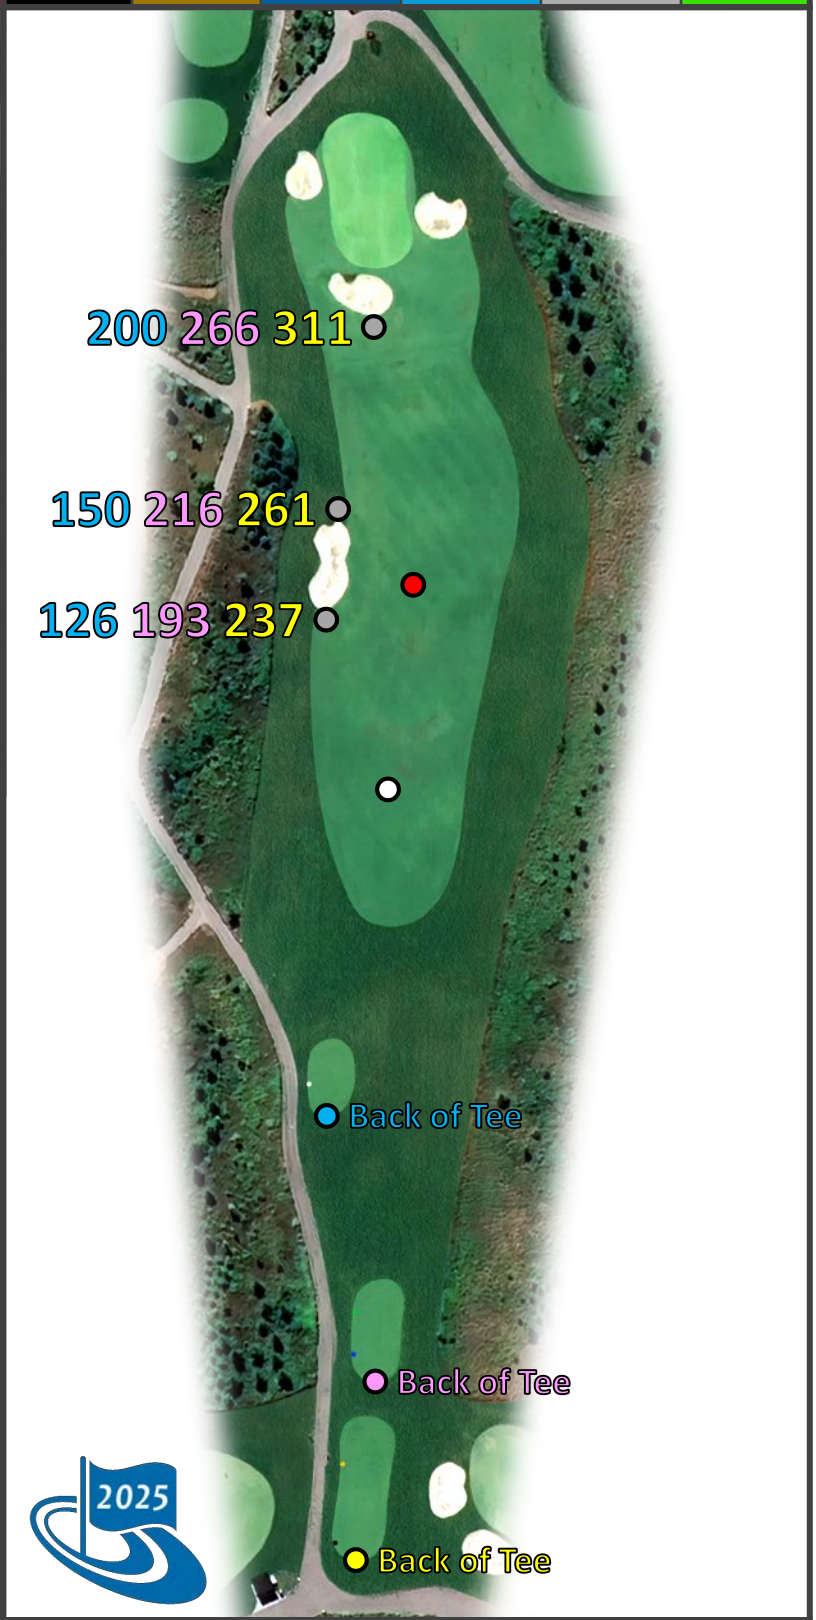

Green Depth = 39 yds (+10)

Welcome to Day #2 of the Michelob Ultra Major!

The opening hole is a short Par 4 with an inviting fairway to ease yourself into the round. It may be tempting to go for the green with a front pin, but anything less than a perfect shot will find a deep bunker fronting the green.

The ideal play is right of the fairway bunker, leaving just a wedge into a green sloped severely back-to-front, with a ridge bisecting the green.

Hole #2 (Par 3)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
131	131	115	115	115	115

Green Depth = 38 yds (-6)

The 2nd hole is the shortest hole on the course. It stretches out today to just 131 yards, but it still brings plenty of trouble, and hitting the green is key to success. This is the highest point on the property, so check the wind before choosing your club!

Missing left means a chip from far below the green. Missing right means a chip running away from you, but there is more room to save your par. Find the green and call it a day!

Hole #3 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
438	430	395	395	395	395

Green Depth = 36 yds (0)

The 3rd hole is a medium-length Par 4 with a speed slot past the bunker that will shorten this hole dramatically. With a little more room to the right that meets the eye, the ideal line is right centre, as all balls will funnel to the left. If you don't find the speed slot, the approach plays 10 yards less than what you measure.

The green is relatively flat, but has subtle breaks, so commit to your putt if you want a birdie!

Hole #4 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
359	339	339	339	321	321

Green Depth = 30 yds (0)

The 4th hole is a short Par 4 with no bunkers to catch an errant shot. The key to this hole is staying left to reach the upper fairway. This will leave a flat lie with a great look at the green. Leaking the ball too far right could leave a blind shot to an elevated green.

The green has an upper and lower level, so find the right section if you want a good chance to Birdie!

Hole #5 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
392	359	359	359	278	279

Green Depth = 38 yds (-11)

The 5th hole is a straight-away, medium-length par 4 that can be played much shorter or longer depending on wind direction. The fairway bunker is not in play off the tee, except for the longest hitters. The ideal play is to leave yourself on the plateau 125 yards from the green. The green has a ridge bisecting it, so don't miss long or face a difficult 2-putt.

Hole #6 (Par 5)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
520	520	487	487	487	487

Green Depth = 40 yds (-3)

The 6th hole is the 1st of back-to-back Par 5s. Playing uphill toward the clubhouse, this is a 3-shot hole for most; however, long hitters can still reach this green.

If you layup, make sure to stay short of the bunkers 60 yards from the green. There is room both left and right of the green, but left is better than right. If the pin is back right above the ridge, you could find yourself with a difficult putt!

Hole #7 (Par 5)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
505	505	476	476	476	476

Green Depth = 40 yds (+12)

The 7th Hole is the 2nd straight Par 5 that offers a chance at birdie or eagle (or even an albatross as we saw in 2021). The fairway bunkers look far away but can be carried with a good tee shot. The fairway slopes left to right and downhill, so aim down the left and let the slope add some yardage. Stay right on the approach, or a poorly struck shot might find the water. The green is guarded by sand to the right, but the large green gives you a chance to save your par!

Hole #8 (Par 3)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
166	166	153	153	141	141

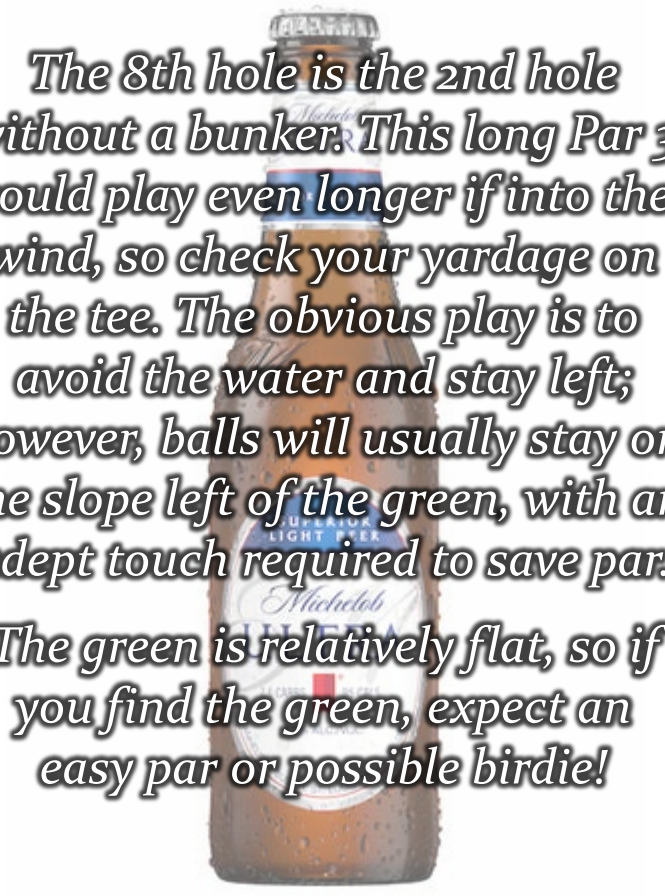

Green Depth = 38 yds (-8)

The 8th hole is the 2nd hole without a bunker. This long Par 3 could play even longer if into the wind, so check your yardage on the tee. The obvious play is to avoid the water and stay left; however, balls will usually stay on the slope left of the green, with an adept touch required to save par.

The green is relatively flat, so if you find the green, expect an easy par or possible birdie!

Hole #9 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
420	396	396	396	320	320

Green Depth = 34 yds (-2)

The final hole on the outward nine is a long Par 4 playing slightly uphill. The bunkers seem ominous from the tee but are very playable. Missing right is completely dead with a large tree imposing on your tee shot. The fairway slopes left to right, so aim at the 2nd bunker and let the fairway work to your advantage. There is plenty of room right and left of this green, so make sure not to short-side yourself on the approach.

Hole #10 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
350	335	314	314	290	290

Green Depth = 37 yds (+15)

This short Par 4 is reminiscent of the 1st hole where long hitters are tempted to hit a driver, but this is not the best option. The green is protected by a large swale in front that you cannot see from the tee, so running the ball onto the green is next to impossible.

Play to the 100-yard marker and wedge it on for your best chance at circling your score on the next tee!

Someone once told me to play it smart, but did I listen? ☺

Michelob ULTRA

Hole #11 (Par 5)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
548	511	511	511	465	465

Green Depth = 38 yds (-13)

The first Par 5 on the back nine is a slight dogleg left with a huge speed slot just past the two fairway bunkers. Longer hitters can split the bunkers and find themselves with only 200 yards for their second, making this a birdie hole. If you're like most of us, play over the left bunker and lay up short of the 2nd bunker for a wedge shot to a green sloping back to front. Missing on the hill left will make for a difficult up-and-down.

Hole #12 (Par 3)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
185	185	145	145	145	145

Green Depth = 37 yds (+1)

The 12th hole is a long Par 3 where Carrick's visual deception is at its finest. The hole looks 1-2 clubs downhill, but it is actually level and plays the indicated yardage.

The green is angled and slopes front to back, so missing left is a safer miss if you need to bail out. The green has some subtle challenges, so make sure to read your putts from both sides to avoid a 3-putt.

Hole #13 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
318	305	305	305	285	285

Green Depth = 32 yds (+9)

The 13th hole is another short Par 4 where the longer hitter is tempted to go for the green. Unlike #1 and #10, this hole is worth the risk for longer hitters. Let the big dog eat and either putt for eagle or pitch it close for a birdie.

The green is flat compared to most greens, so don't expect a skin unless you make eagle.

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
540	515	515	515	458	458

Green Depth = 36 yds (-7)

The 14th hole is another reachable Par 5 for long hitters; however, avoiding the fairway bunkers is key, especially the right bunker.

The fairway slopes right to left, so the left bunkers are a popular spot. If you don't have the horsepower, lay up to 85 yards for a flat lie and good look at the pin.

The green is bisected by a ridge into 2 tiers. If the pin is front, pitching from left or short right is doable to save your Par.

Hole #15 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
435	407	407	407	353	353

Green Depth = 37 yds (+5)

The 15th is a straightaway Par 4 that usually plays long. Avoid the deep bunkers off the tee or face a forced layup to the green. The ideal line is down the right side and anything leaking right should stay in play due to the large slope.

The green is large and slopes back to front, so expect many 3-putts here. This is a tough hole, so Par is a good score!

Hole #16 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
367	367	343	343	343	343

Green Depth = 31 yds (+5)

Your round ends with a 3-hole stretch cut into dense forest. The 16th has one of the more undulating fairways, so aim at the white birch tree and hope for a flat lie.

The green is protected by bunkers left and right with a lower tier in the back left, so if you miss long to a middle or front pin, expect a difficult 2-putt.

Michelob ULTRA

The Nest at Friday Harbour

Hole #17 (Par 3)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
170	170	170	170	170	170

Green Depth = 34 yds (-2)

This par 3 is protected by tall trees, making the wind difficult to assess.

The green looks flat from the tee but does slope slightly from right to left. Several subtle undulations could also make a difference late in your round.

This is the GTA AM Tour Hole In One Competition!

Michelob ULTRA

The Nest at Friday Harbour

Hole #18 (Par 4)

CH	A	B	ONS	C	R
415	394	394	394	319	319

Green Depth = 34 yds (+1)

The 18th is a long, challenging Par 4 that plays more uphill than it looks. Avoid the right bunker and aim down the left centre for the best angle to this green. If the wind is blowing, you may not feel it in the fairway. Long left of this green will surely find the penalty area, so a bailout short right is the proper miss. The green is open on the right if you want to run it up. If you're putting toward the clubhouse, the putt is slower than you would expect.
